Dear Parents:

The Caledonia-Mumford Central School is pleased to offer the use of our computer network and access to the Internet to your student. This packet describes the Caledonia Mumford Central School network and Internet services.

The Caledonia-Mumford Central School's network is a sophisticated computer system that connects all buildings and services on the campus. The Caledonia-Mumford Central School offers many computer based courses and has computer labs for students' use. The network exists for all students and your student bears the responsibility to be a respectful cyber citizen.

The Internet is a global network that will provide your child with access to a wide range of information from all over the world. Your child will also be able to communicate with people from throughout the world. Use of the Internet for educational projects will assist in preparing your child for success in life and work in the 21st century.

With this educational opportunity comes responsibility. It is important that you and your child read this Acceptable Use Policy and discuss it together. The inappropriate use of material may result in the loss of the privilege to use this educational tool. Parents, remember that you are legally responsible for your child's actions.

The Caledonia-Mumford Central School subscribes to Internet filtering software called iBoss Web Filtering as well as GoGuardian for filtering at home. Both companies have excellent reputation within education for keeping our students safe. Even with this safeguard in place, please be aware that there may be inappropriate material for the school environment on the Internet. If you do not want to risk your child's possible exposure to inappropriate material, please indicate that on the form.

Please read and discuss the attached Caledonia-Mumford Central School's Acceptable Use Policy with your child. Please return the form to the district as soon as possible.

Sincerely,

Student Access to the Computer Network and the Internet

Caledonia-Mumford Central School

We are pleased to offer students of the Caledonia-Mumford Central District access to the district computer network and the Internet. To gain independent access to the Internet, all students under the age of 18 must obtain parental permission and must sign and return the accompanying form to the Technology Coordinator. Students 18 years of age and over may sign their own forms.

Independent access to the building network and the Internet will enable students to explore thousands of libraries, databases and use the resources of the world wide web. Parents/guardians should be warned that some material accessible via the Internet may contain items that are illegal, defamatory, inaccurate or potentially offensive to some people. While the intent is to make Internet access available to further educational goals and objectives, students may find ways to access other materials as well.

We believe that the advantages to students from Internet access and the opportunities for collaboration exceed the disadvantages. Ultimately, however, parents and guardians of minors are responsible for setting and conveying the standards that their children should follow when using media and information sources. To that end, the Caledonia-Mumford Central Schools support and respect each family's right to decide whether or not their children will apply for access.

District Internet Rules

Students are expected to exercise the same good behavior on school computer networks as they do in a classroom or a school hallway. Since communications on the networks are often public in nature, general school rules for behavior and communications apply.

The network is provided for students having parental permission to conduct research and communicate with others. Access to network service is given to students who agree to act in a considerate and responsible manner. This access is a privilege, not a right and entails responsibility.

Individual users of the district computer networks are responsible for their behavior and communication over district networks. The district is not responsible for restricting, monitoring or controlling the communications of individuals utilizing the network. The district exercises no control over the content of the information residing in or passing through the network. Users of the network should understand that network storage areas may be treated much like school lockers. Network administrators may review files and communications to maintain system integrity and insure that users are using the system responsibly.

If a student receives permission from his or her parent/guardian, the school will grant permission for his or her use of the network. Parents/guardians bear the responsibility of communicating which network resources their children will use, much in the same ways as they monitor their children's use of television, telephones, movies, radio and other sources of material.

A. Terms and Conditions of Use for the Computer network and the Internet

Each student who receives an account will be part of a discussion with Caledonia -Mumford School district staff members pertaining to the proper use of a network. The system administrator will deem what is inappropriate use and that decision is final. Also, the system administrator may close an account at any time, as they deem necessary. The administration, faculty and staff of Caledonia-Mumford School District may request the system administrator to deny, revoke and suspend a specific user account.

3. Services

The Caledonia-Mumford School District makes no warranties of any kind, whether expressed or implied, for the service it is providing. The Caledonia Mumford School District will not be responsible for any damages you suffer. This includes loss of data resulting from delays, nondeliveries, mis-deliveries, or service interruptions caused by its own negligence or your errors or omissions. Use of any information obtained via the Internet is done at your own risk. The Caledonia-Mumford School District specifically denies any responsibility for the accuracy or quality of information obtained through its services.

4. Waiver of Privacy Expectations

Due to the inherent lack of security in some information systems, and due to the right and need of the Caledonia-Mumford Central School to monitor compliance with this policy, utilization of information systems that require privacy of any kind for any purpose are not supported and are prohibited. Any person utilizing any information system of the Caledonia-Mumford Central School understands and agrees that they are specifically waiving any expectations of privacy in their communications, data, programs and other personal information stored, displayed, accessed, communicated, or transmitted on the system.

5. Security

Security on any computer system is a high priority, especially when the system involves many users. If you feel you can identify a security problem on the network or in the Internet, you must notify the system administrator. Do not demonstrate the problem to other users. Any user identified as a security risk or having a history of problems with other computer systems may be denied access to the Internet.

a. You are responsible for your individual account and should take all reasonable precautions to prevent others from being able to use your account. Under no conditions should you provide your password to another person.

b. You will immediately notify a teacher or the system administrator if you have identified a possible security problem. Do not go looking for security problems, because this may be construed as an illegal attempt to gain access.

c. You will avoid the inadvertent spread of computer viruses by following the district virus protection procedures if you download software.

You will not access or attempt to gain unauthorized access to the Caledonia-Mumford Central School network or to other computer systems through the Caledonia-Mumford Central School network or go beyond your authorized access. This includes attempting to log in through another person's account or access another person's files. These actions are illegal, even if only for the purposes of "browsing".

b. You will not access or attempt to access resources, features, contents, or controls of the information technology facilities or other computer systems that are restricted, confidential, privileged, or that you are otherwise not authorized to use. These actions are illegal.

- b. You will respect the rights of copyright owners. Copyright infringement occurs when you inappropriately reproduce work that is protected by a copyright. If a work contains language that specifies appropriate use of that work, you should follow the expressed requirements. - c. If the violation also involves a violation of other provisions of the Caledonia-Mumford Central School's discipline policy, it will be handled in a manner described in the Caledonia-Mumford Central School's discipline policy. Additional restrictions may be placed on your use of your Internet account and/or access.

C. Limitation of liability

The Caledonia-Mumford Central School District makes no guarantee that the functions or the services provided by or through the Caledonia Mumford Central School's network will be error-free or without defect. The Caledonia Mumford Central School will not be responsible for any damage you may suffer, including but not limited to, loss of data or interruptions of service. The Caledonia Mumford Central School is not responsible for the accuracy or quality of the information obtained through or stored on the system. The Caledonia Mumford Central School will not be responsible for financial obligations arising through the authorized or unauthorized use of the Caledonia-Mumford Central School network.

D. Personal responsibility

When you are using the Caledonia-Mumford Central School's network, it may seem like you can more easily break a rule and not get caught. This is not really true because whenever you do something on a network you leave little "electronic footprints," so the odds of getting caught are really about the same as they are in the real world.

The fact that you can do something or think you can do something without being caught does not make it right to do so. Even if you do not get caught, there is always one person who will know whether you have done wrong and that person is you. Your use of the Internet can be a mirror that will show what kind of a person you are.
